

On 29th February- 4th March Garry Jones, a visiting artist from 'Off Your Trolley Art' came into school to work with all classes. Classes designed and made a model space station and rocket that were used in the Saint Patrick's Day Parade. The models also formed part of our exhibition in John Lewis, Grand Central, Birmingham over the Easter period.

