

On 28th September 2016 Reception Class helped Barnaby Bear to make a map of the school to prevent him from getting lost. They walked around the school to discover where each room was and what each room was used for and they recorded their findings on a map.

