

Using the Food Smart app to understand food labelling

During week beginning 13th February 2017 some members of the Health for Life Committee helped children to understand more about the meaning of the symbols on food packages. Every child in school was given a smart food swaps pack which gave instructions on how to download and use the food smart app with their family.

