

Ice Lollies Galore!

During the hot spell in late June and July 2018, Mrs Darkaoui sold ice lollies at lunchtimes to the children to keep them cool. This was a huge success, so much so, that each day we ran out of stock! There was a queue every day as the children waited patiently to be served.

The children enjoyed cooling down under the gazebos with a flavoured ice lolly each day.

