

Pupil Led Collective Worship

Throughout the summer term, pupils from different classes have led and shared Collective Worship with other classes. Teachers have modelled good practice so that children are now confident when leading all parts of Collective Worship. They know to 'gather, listen, respond and go forth'.

