

As part of Black History Week, on Wednesday 16th October 2019 Vijay visited Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Primary School to teach the children all about Bhangra dancing and where it originated from. Vijay worked with each class and explained that Bhangra dancing was originally connected to farming, reaping the harvest and gathering crops. Each class shared their dance experience during a collective worship at the end of the day.

